

SU SURYARPABHA

8-24-12
Period
Specimen Sketch

The beetles life cycle is first to be hatched in an egg and then they are a larva which looks like a cashew to me. Then they grow to be a pupa which looks like a growing plant root to me. Finally they are an adult which looks like a normal beetle.